SINCE 1925

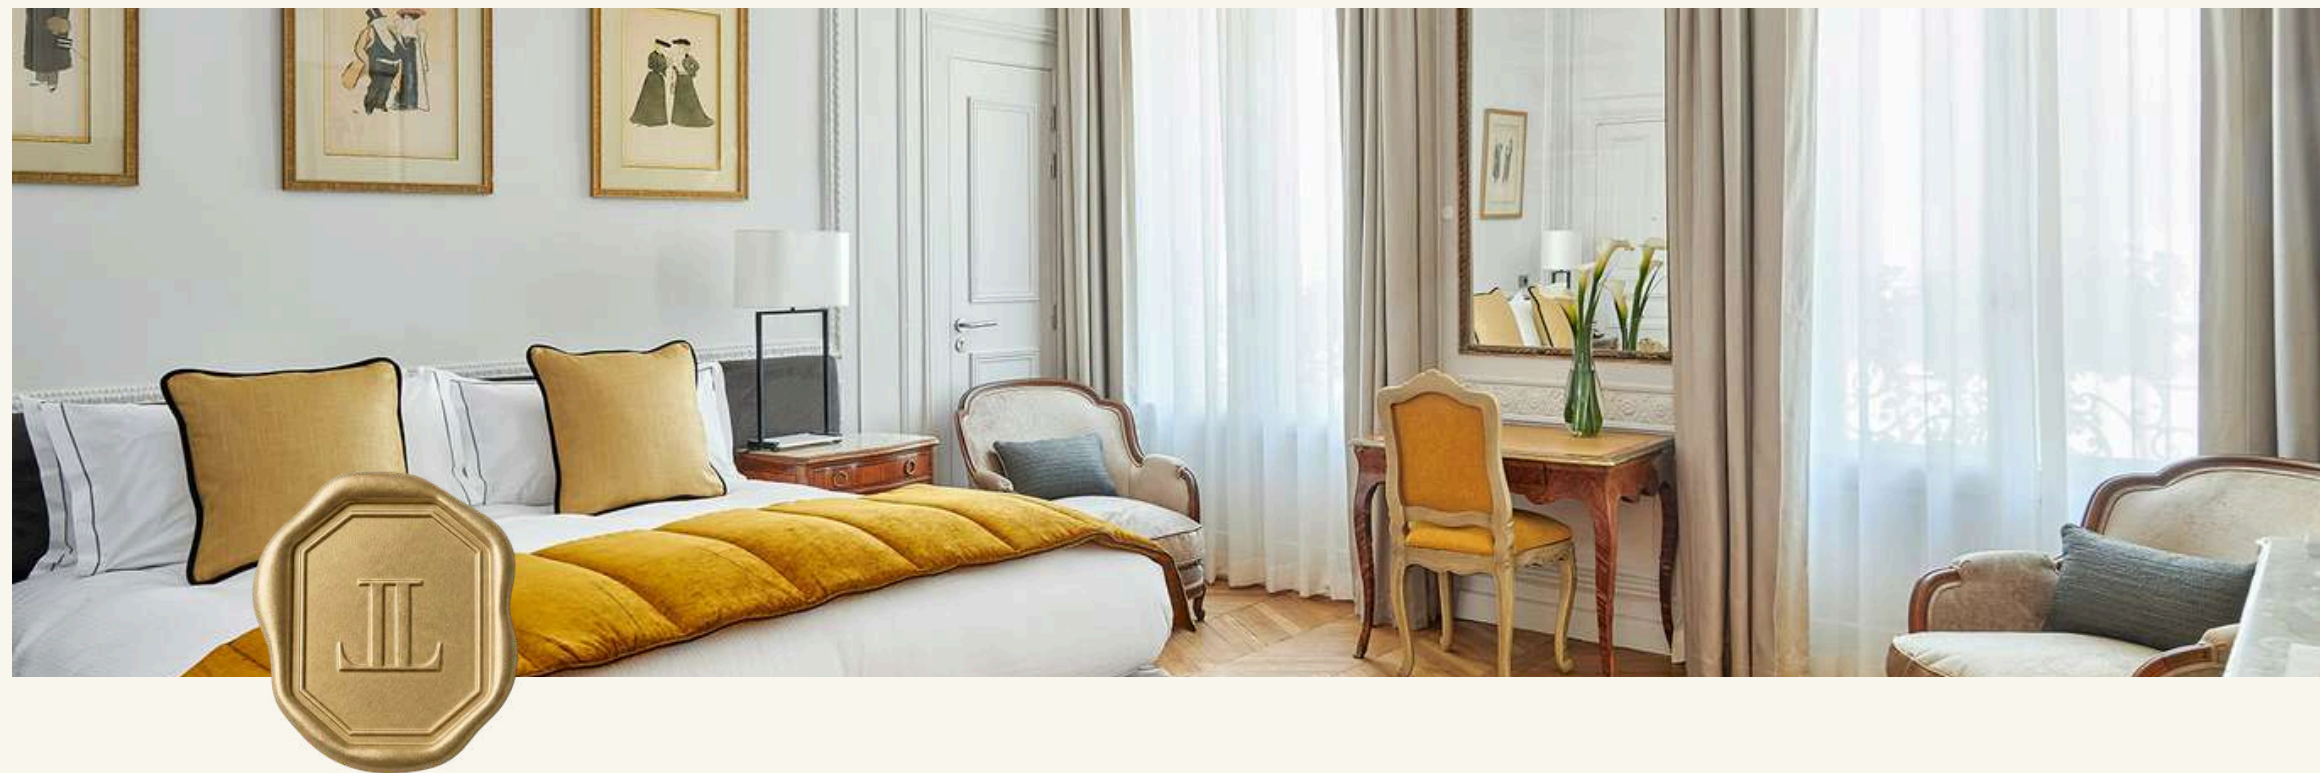

Since its construction in 1889, the Hôtel Lancaster has discreetly stood overlooking over the Champs-Élysées. Founded in 1925, the Lancaster opened its doors to travelers from around the world and became a Parisian heaven for cinema icons such as Liz Taylor, Orson Welles, David Lynch, and Marlene Dietrich, who made it her home in Paris, even installing her piano there. The Hôtel Lancaster is a hidden gallery where each work of art tells a story, a peaceful house where one feels at home, for over a century.

OUR SERVICES

The perfect Parisian retreat just steps from the Champs-Élysées, the Hôtel Lancaster welcomes you with a unique ambiance that blends early 20th-century architectural influences, antique furnishings, and contemporary touches designed by Studio Jean Philippe Nuel. From the bar to Monsieur Lancaster, and from our Deluxe Rooms to our Signature Suites, step inside and experience the Hôtel Lancaster’s truly distinctive atmosphere.

OUR PRECIOUS GUEST

Every journey has its own rhythm and at Le Lancaster, we've designed every space to move with it. With 70% of our rooms and suites interconnecting, creating the perfect canvas for family adventures.

Our youngest guests receive special attention of their own, with a dedicated welcome that makes their stay just as memorable.

Whether for romantic getaways or time spent with friends, our rooms are flexible, and the atmosphere is warm and peaceful.

And because the ones with four paws are just as much a part of the journey, they too receive their own personal welcome upon arrival, a small gesture that says, unmistakably: you belong here too.

*"If they are important to you,
they are even more to us"*

LE LANCASTER
CHAMPS — ÉLYSÉES

What if Monsieur was one of Marlene Dietrich’s many “friends” and had captured her imagination during the three years she lived in her suite at the Lancaster? Today, our executive chef, Sébastien Giroud, carries on this love story through his cuisine. Much more than just a restaurant, Monsieur Lancaster is a true hub of life, where every appetizer, main course, and dessert is meant to be shared, according to your desires.
