LE LANCASTER & PARIS

An elegant Parisian residence just steps from the Champs-Élysées, Hôtel Lancaster welcomes guests into a distinctive setting where early 20th-century architecture, antique furnishings and contemporary touches by Studio Jean-Philippe Nuel come together in perfect harmony. Step inside and discover the Lancaster's unique atmosphere: a family-owned residence featuring 44 rooms and 11 suites.

A LITTLE CINEMATIC HISTORY ON RUE DE BERRI

Marlene Dietrich made Suite 401 her own, decorating it to her personal taste and making it her Parisian home.
Clark Gable, Greta Garbo and Grace Kelly are among the celebrated figures whose presence has left its mark on the hotel's history.

THE ART OF COOKING AT LE LANCASTER

Chef Sébastien Giroud and his team create elegant, seasonal cuisine, working exclusively with artisans and producers from across France.

SÉBASTIEN GIROUD

FDrawing on his experience in regional cuisine and at prestigious establishments such as Bernard Loiseau, the Chef celebrates the flavours of the French terroir with a contemporary touch.
Placing ingredients at the heart of every dish, he uses technique in the service of flavour.
Our sommeliers carefully pair each dish with selections from our wine cellar, home to a remarkable collection of fine wines.
